Awards / Accomplishments / Promotions / Appointments August 2016 Employee of the Month

Officer Erica Scott

On Wednesday, June 22, 2016, at 0706 hours, Officer Scott and Officer Summers were dispatched to 939 Hampshire for a domestic disturbance. When they arrived, they located a female with a laceration to her head. They learned that the victim's live in boyfriend had hit her in the head with a vacuum cleaner during a domestic disturbance. Officer's checked the 2nd floor apartment and found Zachary Furman in the apartment, armed with a 10" butcher knife, and threatening to kill himself. Furman refused to put the knife down and submit to arrest. The scene was contained and Officer Scott, who is one of the department's newest Crisis Negotiators, began talking with Furman. After approximately 30 minutes, Furman relinquished his weapon and surrendered without incident. Officer Scott's quick thinking and specialized training helped resolve a tense and potentially deadly situation without injury to any officers or the suspect.
